To meet the expenditures called for by their estimates a tax of nine mills on the last city list will be required, said list being $4,848,172.

In view of recent increases in local taxation for the past several years, your Committee have made every effort to reduce the rate of city taxation and the above estimates are deemed to be such as will fully and fairly meet the expenses of economical administration and of such permanent improvements as are at this time absolutely necessary.

In addition to the above estimated expenses for ordinary purposes of the Government, the Committee on Finance have been requested by petition, committee report and resolution, to recommend that the next annual meeting of the City of Norwich be held on the 15th day of June next, and to recommend that a tax of nine mills be laid on the last perfected grand list of the city.

COBURN L. LADD, Chairman of Finance.

I hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true copy of the original report and resolution.

Attest: ALTHEA G. CROWLEY, City Clerk and Clerk of the Court of Common Council.

DEMOCRATS HOLD CITY CAUCUS

Harmonious Session of Fifteen Minutes at which Entire Slate was Nominated— Ticket Headed by C. F. Thayer for Mayor.

The campaign for the city election in June opened on Thursday evening, when the democratic caucus was held in Town hall, there being about 150 present. It was a harmonious session throughout, lasting not over fifteen minutes. The entire slate was put through without any opposition, although it was rumored before the caucus that some might be expected.

Soon after 8 o'clock J. J. Corkery called the caucus to order, stating that he had been requested to do it in the absence of the chairman of the town committee. As chairman, Dr. J. J. Donohue was chosen, and after reading the call addressed the gathering, stating that the chief object of the meeting was the selection of candidates for consideration a week from Monday, and the naming of men who will carry the party to success, if it should be a democratic victory.

During the past administration the chief activity, he said, had been in raising salaries, which raise amounts to nearly a quarter of a mill.

There is also much talk as to whether Norwich or the Consolidated Town and City, as it is called, is the dumping ground of that company, and it is up to the city to see if there is any money to be made out of the city $20,000 was expended for an increased water supply, but practically nothing was gained. It is probable that the matter of an increased supply will come before the people during the coming administration, and it behooves you to see that the proper men are put up. (Applause.)

The public is well informed on the mal-administration of the past year, and it is up to the citizens to register a protest a week from Monday at the polls.

Union motion of J. F. Coughlin, Thomas J. Kelly was chosen as clerk of the meeting, and when nominations for mayor were called for J. J. Corkery arose and stated that it was his privilege two years ago to nominate the democratic candidate for mayor. Then the party workers made every effort, but on the counting the votes were against them and the administration was republican. Many causes were assigned for the defeat, but he believes the principal cause was that the democrats are a minority party, and the only way to win is to be united and gain the confidence of independent voters by showing them the better administration, making it economical and businesslike. For that purpose the administration of town affairs was handed over to the democratic party, and the present town administration is not playing for a record in politics, but doing its work in a businesslike manner.

The one he had in mind, he stated, has devoted more time and careful thought to the interests of the city than any other man. He is honest, industrious, capable and fearless, and represents the best type of American citizenship. He can accept defeat gracefully, and win without affecting

LIVE FACTS ABOUT BAPTISTS.

Their Numbers, Wealth and the Progress Made.

Among the Protestant denominations of the United States, says the Baltimore American, the Baptists rank second. They number 5,692,284. The Methods are first with 5,740,838.

The Baptists of the United States raised last year for church work $22,812,854. This does not include their gifts to education.

They own and control 34 universities and colleges, valued at $28,846,055, with an endowment of $23,212,569.

They own and control ten theological seminaries, valued at $1,327,000, with an endowment fund of $4,000,000.

They have 26,000 students in their colleges and universities. This means that about one-seventh of all the universities and college students in the United States are in Baptist institutions.

They own about one-eighth of all the college and university property in the United States, and control one-ninth of the endowment funds.

Besides their universities and colleges the Baptists own and control 84 secondary schools, valued at $4,245,407, with an endowment fund of $1,684,094. They have in these schools 14,453 students.

The Baptists of the United States have nearly $75,000,000 invested in educational work.

In the year 1880 there were 50,000 Baptists in the United States. On January 1, 1909, there were 5,145,143 Baptists in good standing in the United States.

The 15 southern states, comprising the territory of the Southern Baptist convention, have within their borders 2,130,080 Baptists.

There are 48,302 Baptist churches and 34,132 ordained ministers of this denomination in the United States. There were 28,000 people baptized in the United States last year.

When George Washington took his oath of office as the first president of the United States one man out of every 94 was a Baptist.

Killed 200 Pound Bear.

Homen A. Lyons of Bennington, who has made a practice of trapping bears nearly every spring for a number of years, brought in the largest trophy Sunday, a bear weighing considerable over 200 pounds. The animal which was a male, was exceedingly fat, but not yet half grown. It was covered from its long period of hibernation. The same bear, Mr. Lyons estimated, weighed 400 pounds in ordinary condition. The bear was trapped near Little pond in Woodford, but the animal carried both trap and dog, the latter being dead.

The trapper finally came up with the bear about three miles east of Bennington. Even then it kept away from him for a half mile chase before he could snap up with it to shoot it. Two rifle bullets were necessary to close the bear's career. The fur, contrary to the conditions that exist with nearly all other animals at this season, was in prime condition. Later in the year the bears tear out so much hair in their progress through the woods that the fur is useless. —Rutland News.

Why Not Make It Unanimous?

Not the least significant news of the day is the report from Ohio that eight republican nominees for congress whose election is considered probable are pledged against the re-election of Speaker Cannon to his present post. This is cheering, indeed. There are at present thirteen republicans and eight democrats from Ohio in the house, and it is believed that at least eight democrats will be elected this year; so that sixteen out of twenty-one of the new Ohio members may reasonably be counted upon as antagonistic to "Uncle Joe." This is an excellent showing, though not quite as good as it ought to be. If other states do as well in advance of the eighth of November, the member from Danville may see a great light and decide to join the procession by declaring that, if chosen again by his Illinois district, he will not be a candidate for the presidency of the United States. In so doing he would greatly serve the party to which he has so loudly and constantly avowed his devotion. —Providence Journal.

Vicious Lunatics.

Twice within 48 hours now a vicious lunatic driving some automobile has run down fatally someone on the highway and slid on, leaving the victim to die. In one case a woman was slaughtered, and Friday in Cambridge one boy had his life wiped out. If there is any more despicable criminal who has been revealed in the past ten years we do not know of him. His feat is a cowardice of the most degraded sort and the police should lose not the slightest opportunity of tracing him to his kennel. —Boston Record.

A Change.

The latest "Indian uprising" turns out to have been an expedition of Indians knowing their legal rights, to cut the wire fences of some encroaching white settlers. The courts sustain them. What a change from the old days when the settler was always right and the Indian generally dead! —New York World.

Prime Minister Botha.

It has been remarked that for the immediate administration of United South Africa it may not be expedient to select the ablest men; racial claims, as between Dutch and English, must count more. It is, nevertheless, an augury for the stability of an institution created so soon after the close of a racial war that there has not been manifested on the part of the defeated Boers any desire to embarrass an administration based on the constructive theory of a united people. That General Botha should be summoned to form the first cabinet for the merged colonies may be believed to have the cheerful approval of the followers of Dr. Jameson. Since union was projected, both these leaders have been rival chiefs in their eagerness to accomplish what, on the first of next month, will formally be inaugurated. General Botha's career recalls General Robert E. Lee's. Originally opposed to the Kruger policy, he rose to supreme command of the Boer armies; and when the campaign was lost he led his people to accept the result which war had decreed. —Providence Journal.

Just Think! Not Even One-Tenth of Lard is Leaf Lard!

Here is what the leading lard packer says in a recent advertisement: "Leaf is the cream of lards. There is not enough of it to supply one-tenth of the people, and so it goes only to those who insist upon it."

Does it not stand to reason that if there is only enough of the proper fat produced to make pure leaf lard to supply one-tenth of the demand that the chances are ten to one against your getting pure lard? The only absolute protection against getting common hog fat when you buy lard is by buying Cottolene instead. Cottolene is a pure vegetable product—made from cotton seed oil, refined by our exclusive process. It contains no hog fat and makes palatable, nourishing food which will agree with the most sensitive stomach.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed

Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.
